

Jewish Voice for Peace/Madison invites you to a

CELEBRATION OF TREES:
Healing, Reconciliation, and Alternative Paths to Peace and Justice in Israel/Palestine

Saturday, February 23, 7 pm
at Marc Rosenthal's house in the near east side of Madison

Rabbi Laurie Zimmerman of Congregation Shaarei Shamayim will lead a program of readings, poetry, singing, and discussion focusing on the importance of trees to Israelis and Palestinians.

This discussion and celebration will kick off the national JVP campaign to purchase 3,000 olive saplings for planting in the West Bank to support the efforts of Palestinian olive farmers to rebuild their economy.

Suggested donation $5-10
(checks made out to JVP/Madison or cash only)
Please bring a vegetarian dish to pass.

Reservations are required.
Please RSVP for directions to Tsela at thirdfloorcloset@sbcglobal.net, 236-2141
or Marc Rosenthal at marcrosenthal@hotmail.com, 215-3358.

www.jewishvoiceforpeace.org

