5 Questions

We've had the honor of printing responses to these 5 questions from SL alums Sarah Ihmoud, Kathy Engel, Megan G, Miller Oberman, Randall Wallace, & Deborah Augustin, as well as from two current faculty members. We'd like to open our community-wide dialogue to anyone else who might be willing to answer them, whether by name or anonymously. As above, reach us at sl.fs.jpalestine@proton.me.

Here are the questions:

1 Can you say a little about your connection to Sarah Lawrence?

2 Can you say a little about what your life has been like since October of 2023?

3 Something the Sarah Lawrence administration has said consistently since the fall of 2023: the rights of Zionists must be respected. Can you say a little about what that means to you?

4 What's the role of a college or university in a time of genocide?

5 What are the values of Sarah Lawrence that you respect?

Since our last newsletter:

• Monday November 9 Former Biden administration Secretary of State Anthony Blinken: "The Israelis did, for the most part, the bare minimum of what they felt they needed to do for people who were stuck in the middle of this crossfire in Gaza. There was a certain amount of disregard, a certain amount of disdain for the well-being of Palestinian civilians. But that is vastly different, vastly different, from an attempt to do them harm, from an attempt to eliminate them. The target was Hamas, and, horrifically, too many people were caught in the middle of that, and suffered terribly as a consequence."

Hamzé Attar to Blinken:
1- An AI system named Lavender generated some 37,000 human targets with a known error rate of roughly 10%, and pre-authorised 15–20 civilian deaths per junior operative AND up to 100 or more for a commander.
2- Nearly half the munitions dropped in the opening months were unguided "dumb" bombs.
3- Around 92% of Gaza's housing units were damaged or destroyed.
4- Every hospital in Gaza was damaged, raided or forced out of service at some point.

5- Famine was formally declared in Gaza City after Blinken's own department's experts concluded Israel was blocking aid, and he certified the opposite to Congress.
6- More journalists were killed than in any conflict IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND.
7- The flour ambush: Over a thousand people were killed while queuing for food at aid distribution sites.
8- The Israeli Defence Minister ordered a "complete siege": no electricity, no food, no fuel, against "human animals," and the Israeli President declared that an entire nation was responsible.
9- A five-year-old girl, Hind Rajab, was killed in a car with six members of her family by 335 bullets and the ambulance dispatched to rescue her, coordinates pre-cleared, was shelled as well.
10- Fifteen paramedics and rescue workers were killed in Rafah and buried in a mass grave alongside their crushed ambulances.
11 - 70% of verified deaths in the Gaza Strip were women and children. 12- All twelve of Gaza's universities were damaged or destroyed, along with roughly 90% of school buildings.
13- Netanyahu invoked Amalek; the biblical nation commanded to be erased, down to its infants and livestock.
14- YOUR own staff resigned in protest, one after another: Josh Paul, Stacy Gilbert, Hala Rharrit and your department's own NSM-20 review found it "reasonable to assess" that US weapons had been used in breach of international humanitarian law. But noooooo; the target was Hamas.

The Combat Antisemitism Movement, the Louis D. Brandeis Center for Human Rights Under Law, the Zionist Organization of America, the American Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists, the Coalition for Jewish Values and the Israeli-American Civic Action Network describe the appointment of Stephen Miller to the position of White House Chief of Staff as “a meaningful reflection of the longstanding contributions of Jewish Americans to public service.” TimesOfIsrael

New Ha’aretz investigation uncovers a network of 1,653 X accounts posing as Iranians, mobilized to promote Netanyahu and his Likud party during Israel's recent election. Many of these accounts had previously been identified in an influence operation promoting Reza Pahlavi, the son of Iran's last shah, and regime change in Iran.

In an attempt to portray itself as "more American," Elbit Systems, Israel's largest weapons manufacturer, rebrands its American subsidiary to Twenty-Six Defense. BDSBoston

“Israel has destroyed the infrastructure necessary for human survival and continues to obstruct the materials needed to rebuild it. This is what extermination looks like beyond the bombs. Through displacement, exposure, disease and the systematic destruction of the conditions necessary to sustain life. I don’t even know what else there is to say anymore. We have watched every conceivable horror unfold before our eyes and still allowed it to continue. We have failed Gaza. We have failed humanity.” Nerdeen Kiswani

“Israel's ongoing refusal to allow this type of humanitarian aid into Gaza violates 620i of the Foreign Assistance Act, mandating an immediate cut off of all weapons to Israel under US law.” Josh Ruebner

“Since yesterday, I have returned again and again to the photographs of four children who died beside their mother when heavy rain sent rocks crashing down upon the tent in which they had sought refuge. I have looked at their faces until I could scarcely bear it, yet I have been unable to turn away.” Dr. Ezzideen

New School’s University Student Senate (USS) passes resolution to boycott Center for the American Experience. The University Student Senate passed a resolution prohibiting all collaboration with The New School’s newly-launched Center for the American Experience (CAE) and, in an open letter, called on students and faculty to join. The resolution claims that the CAE promotes right-wing perspectives, undermines the university’s explicitly progressive legacy, and reflects a rightward drift by the university. It cites CAE’s events and speakers, values, and launch amid the university’s restructuring. It also claims CAE directors Natalia Mehlman Petrzela and Julia Sonnevend have engaged in anti-Palestinian actions that run counter to the USS’s values of social justice. It also denounces CAE Board of Advisors member and Sarah Lawrence professor Samuel J. Abrams, who has a history of anti-Palestinian and anti-progressive statements. NewSchoolFreePress

The Genocide Lie

by Samuel J. Abrams

October 15, 2025 AEIdeas

In today's debate over Israel, hatred wears the mask of justice. Scroll, march, or listen on campus—everywhere, the same word appears in red: genocide.

This idea is not only false; it is obscene. To call Israel's war against Hamas a genocide is to empty that term of all moral meaning. It weaponizes history's most serious crime against the very people who suffered it. The word, once a solemn warning to humanity, has become a slogan—a way to invert victim and aggressor, to make Jewish self-defense itself the ultimate sin.

Sarah Lawrence Continues to Lean into DEI, but America Is Rejecting This Toxic Ideology

• Tuesday November 10 Israel is blocking the entry of 150,000 tents into Gaza, while stocks of essential shelter materials and winter supplies have been exhausted, said Dr. Ramiz Alakbarov, the UN Deputy Special Coordinator and Humanitarian Coordinator for the Occupied Palestinian Territory. His remarks come after heavy weekend rainfall flooded an estimated 70,000 makeshift tents sheltering displaced families across the Gaza Strip, leaving thousands exposed to harsh weather conditions. QudsNews

"The Israeli army has placed an orange cube off the coast of Gaza City, warning that it will bomb any fishing boat that crosses this line and kill anyone who attempts to cross it, including fishermen and civilians who simply want to swim in their own sea…Fishermen are forbidden from fishing, civilians are forbidden from swimming, and Palestinians are denied the right to benefit from their own maritime resources." Yamen Nashwan

Irish pro-Palestine protesters chant chant "Blood, Blood, Blood on your hands" and throw objects at Joe and Jill Biden as they leave Trinity College in Dublin. ClashReport

• Wednesday November 11 Israeli judiciary rejects the release of 14 doctors from Gaza, Physicians for Human Rights reports. The organization stated that the 14 doctors remain imprisoned in Israeli detention without trial, some for more than two years, at a time when Gaza's health sector is facing a severe shortage of medical personnel. Mustafa Barghouti

"Just returned from West Bank. It is the worse Israeli violence against Palestinians that I've seen in 31 years. Settlers acting with vicious impunity while the IDF stands by or protects the settlers." Janine di Giovanni

Israeli settlers carried out 714 attacks in the past 30 days, 24 a day. The olive harvest drove the attacks to more than half again their usual pace, from the groves of Ramallah and Nablus to fires in Beita and al-Lubban ash-Sharqiya. GoodShepherd

Activists joined by New York State Senator Jabari Brisport gather outside the World Trade Center, protesting against the transportation of military-related materials through JFK International Airport. The protest, organised under the Break the Chain campaign led by the Democratic Socialists of America, comes amid reporting from The Intercept that Challenge Airlines cargo flights have transported materials including nitrocellulose, bomb casings and guidance kits from JFK to Israel. Open-source data documented in the report reveals weapons flown out of JFK are tied to mass casualty attacks in Gaza, Lebanon, and Iran." MiddleEastEye

"My colleague and friend Dr. Rizk Abu Shaaira was killed yesterday at work when Israel, backed by the US as always, bombed the surgical recovery room at Nasser Medical Complex. Two of his colleagues were badly injured, and many patients were hurt and killed. Dr. Rizk is featured on the original poster for the documentary American Doctor, standing to my right as we did a redo laparotomy on a disaster abdomen. Dr. Rizk was one of those surgeons we describe as "super enthusiastic." On rounds he would jump at the opportunity to change a dressing, clean a wound, or pull a drain. He always had an answer to any question anyone asked. He embodied the surgical wisdom that "a chance to cut is a chance to cure." Dr. Rizk's shocking murder is yet another reminder of why we must get control of our country. Our government has no right to force us to subsidize the mass murder of doctors and children, not in Palestine and not anywhere." Feroze Sidhwa

"An American-made bomb was used yesterday to strike Nasser Hospital in Gaza, killing Palestinians, including a doctor. Your governments manufacture these weapons, sell them, and fund their continued production. The tax money they collect from you is turned into bombs that rain down on us, destroy our hospitals, and take innocent lives. Your governments speak of human rights while their policies help fund the very weapons used to kill us.

Your governments must be held responsible for what these weapons are doing. We do not want to hear speeches about humanity. We want the bombs to stop falling on our heads." Tamer Nahed

"Wow. The University of Toronto commissioned a report on anti-Palestinian racism, then rejected it because naming that discrimination makes others uncomfortable. The irony of the Palestine Exception is stunning." Mahmoud Khalil

• Friday November 13 Mossad director Roman Gofman is in Washington today to meet with CIA Director John Ratcliffe and White House envoy Steve Witkoff, as Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu presses for President Donald Trump to resume strikes on Iran.
Mamdani Condemns Land Sales For Israeli Settlements. New York City Still Protects Them. "The first thing that stood out to the Levin family about Pnei Kedem—an illegal Israeli settlement on occupied Palestinian land—was the view. In a promotional video, Leah Levin says: 'The guy was showing us around and we just said, 'Do you ever get sick of this? This is crazy.' Her husband, JD Levin, stands beside her, carrying a baby. If you look closely, you'll notice he's also carrying a handgun in a holster on his hip. What ultimately convinced the young couple, originally fromLakewood, New Jersey, to settle in Pnei Kedem? 'The vibe of the people.' Concerns before moving? 'The weather.'" TheKey

Palestinian parties must not help Eisenkot rescue Israel from collapse: "Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Gadi Eisenkot, leader of the 'opposition' Yashar party, have both been principal perpetrators of Israel's genocide of Gaza's Palestinians. Eisenkot, a former army chief and author of Israel's genocidal 'Dahiya Doctrine' of mass destruction targeting civilians, served in Netanyahu's emergency "war cabinet" from October 2023 to June 2024. Both are equally committed to Jewish supremacy in Israel and the 1967 occupied territories and to excluding so-called 'Arab' parties from any coalition government. It is therefore unclear why any segment of the Palestinian people, let alone those who are citizens of Israel and who have suffered the longest at the hands of their Zionist conquerors, would express a preference for either of these genocidal choices. All the political parties representing Palestinian citizens of Israel have nonetheless offered their services to Eisenkot in order to end Netanyahu's rule." Joseph Massad

Lawrence Wilkerson, former US Army Colonel and chief of staff to US Secretary of State Colin Powell: "The real casualty count in Gaza is well north of 400,000 people. This is worse than Hiroshima or Nagasaki."

Ezra Klein: A couple of times you've called liberal Zionists akin to Nazis, right? That's a very specific thing, right? Sometimes I'll hear you defend the argument by saying, ''Well, Zionism in all of its versions is ethnonationalist. And I'm just saying I don't like ethnonationalism."
Hasan Piker: Yeah.
Ezra Klein: What made the Nazis the Nazis was gas chambers. Like, just like, straight. Right? Liberal Zionists who believe there's an apartheid scenario happening in the West Bank, who believe that Gaza was a genocide, or at least war crimes…I don't really understand the defense of calling them akin to Nazis.
Hasan Piker: Now, it's hyperbolic. But the reason I'm not so precious about the utilization of the term is because of its historic significance. The entire principle behind Holocaust Studies is to understand how society could move in a direction where people could turn a blind eye to such devastation. To such systematized forms of violence. This machine of death and destruction. Its utility is in learning about it so that we don't repeat those mistakes. And right now, obviously, it's not to the same degree as the Holocaust. But right now we are watching genocide unfold. So I don't mind using this kind of incendiary language, with the hopes that people understand exactly how devastating the situation has become, and take the sufficient response against it. To try and stop it.
Aaron Regunberg: "The Nazis were 'Nazis' in 1923, when they tried to execute a coup/putsch to overturn German democracy, and 1925, when Hitler outlined his plan to kill/enslave all of Eastern Europe in Mein Kampf, and in 1933, when they turned Germany into a totalitarian dictatorship, and in 1935, when they stripped Jews of citizenship, and in 1938, when they took over the Sudetenland, and in 1939, when they conquered Poland and began the mass enslavement of Poles, and in 1940, when they conquered France, and in 1941, when they invaded the Soviet Union and began dispatching mobile death squads to murder millions of Slavs and Jews. They were Nazis through all of that, before they began executing the 'Final Solution' via gas chambers in 1942. We criticize Neville Chamberlain now for not understanding that the Nazis were Nazis until 1939. And here we have one of liberalism's most well-known elite intellectuals, seemingly—with all the hindsight that Chamberlain did not have—not understanding that the Nazis were always Nazis? This one's not complicated."

Jerusalemite Raeda Saeed begins one-year prison term amid ongoing crackdown on Palestinians in Jerusalem. PalestineInformationCenter

• Saturday November 14 "The story in Ha'aretz about the kidnapping of Iranian General Ali Reza Asgari in Turkey in 2007 to obtain information about Ron Arad, and his assassination by Mossad operatives, is astonishing. According to Haaretz, he was killed after being interrogated and it emerged that he had no information about Arad." Yossi Melman

"Walking Rafik to school one morning, we passed a house where a plastic skull was hanging from the porch light. Rafik stopped in his tracks, and I saw it in his eyes: the memory of the day we evacuated Gaza, crossing from the north of the Strip to its southern tip, stepping past actual human skulls and remains. 'Are we going there?' he said, of the house. 'No, habibi, we're only going to school," I said. Mohammed R Mhawish

• Sunday November 15 "I am just back from Madrid after a deep dive into the Fergie Chambers extradition case and what it tells us of the extraordinary international coordination of repression by states." Craig Murray

Aspiring Israeli Prime Minister Gadi Eisenkot: "The conduct of outgoing Prime Minister Netanyahu and his inner circle poses a tangible, direct and immediate threat to Israeli democracy. No part of Israel has been left uncorrupted, distorted or subjugated to serve Netanyahu's personal political survival. There is no restraint he has not cast aside, and no boundary he has not crossed…a new and even more serious affair is now coming to light—an alleged attempt to rig the elections through the planting of evidence and the deployment of the police against Arab citizens of Israel without a valid search warrant or arrest warrant. I call for an immediate investigation into the affair and for the police and the Shin Bet to immediately clarify the details that have been published. I will work to establish a commission of inquiry to investigate the involvement and interference of the Prime Minister's Office on election day and the conduct of the security agencies in the run-up to and during the elections."

Disqualified Balad party chair Sami Abu Shehadeh: "Netanyahu is leading the genocide camp, but Eisenkot is leading the apartheid camp."

from "The trial and humiliation of Sami Abu Shehadeh": "To be a citizen willing to trade history and memory for the pragmatic needs of the present is still to be held as a suspect. It is to be told that the door is open, only to discover it was never meant for you to pass through. In Kafka's parable, Josef K. waits at the gate until he dies. The Palestinian citizen is asked to confess at the gate, and then informed that he should commit suicide. Israel was never meant to include Palestinians—it was always meant to exclude them through their inclusion, or to include them through exclusion, until the time comes to 'finish the job.'" Mondoweiss

"Lebanese media outlet Al-Mahatta has discovered that the Zionist occupation forces have imposed new rules for the entry of aid convoys into several south Lebanese villages. These include Rmeish, Ain Ebel and Debel. Muslims are barred from participating in the aid convoys—Lebanese Muslims cannot enter Lebanese villages in south LEBANON." Vanessa Beeley

”The Land Poem,” Mahmoud Darwish, 1977,
translated by Barbara Romaine

THE LAND POEM

I am hope, easy and expansive—so said the land to me, the grass like a greeting at dawn.

This is the chance of following Khadijah into the distant years.

Not in order to reap me did they sow me.

The wind of Galilee would speak of me, and so it drowses where Khadijah dwells.

The gazelle of Galilee would raze my prison this day, and so it guards

Khadijah's shade as she tends her fire.

Khadijah! I have seen…and have believed my vision.

In its vastness it takes me and in its passion: I am the lover eternal, the prisoner manifest.

Taking on my viridity, the orange becomes Jaffa's fixation.

Since I have known Khadijah, I have been the land.

Not in order to kill me did they know me.

Between my fingers Galilee's crop may grow, and sketch this place

parceled out between my striving and the love of Khadijah.

This is the chance to advance anew into the distant years, from the month of March until the wind departs from the land.

This dust is mine.

These clouds are mine.

This is Khadijah's brow.

I am the lover eternal—the prisoner manifest.

Early morning and the fragrance of the land awakens me…

Early evening and my iron fetters awaken her.

This is the chance of advancing anew into the distant years

Those so proceeding ask not as to the span of their lives.

They ask about the land: Is it reborn?

Oh land: my child!

Have they known you only to slaughter you?

And did they shackle you with our dreams, and have you sunk into our wound in the winter?

Have they known you only to slaughter you?

And did they shackle you with their dreams, and have you risen up to our dream in the spring?

I am the land…

Oh you who are on your way to the grain in its cradle,

Till my body!

You on your way to the mount of fire,

Pass over my body,

You on your way to the Dome of the Rock, pass,

Pass over my body…

But you who trample my body

Shall not pass.

I am the land embodied.

You shall not pass.

I am the land in its awakening.

You shall not pass.

I am the land. Oh, you who trample the land in its awakening,

You shall not pass,

You shall not pass,

You shall not pass!

Our students in Gaza just got a delivery of new books. we currently have over 1000 students in two schools. if you'd like to support us, consider buying Palestinian olive oil from @Play4Palestine for the holidays. We're a US based, all-volunteer group (except our staff in Gaza), have been around for 25 years now.

We all have those people in our lives that appreciate a donation being made in their name for a cause that they support more than they would appreciate a material gift. The Arab Group for the Protection of Nature (APN) is carrying out many sustainable projects, one of them is Reviving Gaza's Farmland, where they work on several aspects from rehabilitation of vegetable and poultry farms to cultivation of fodder seeds and fruit trees. They work on all the details to make the project sustainable including securing water tanks and sources for irrigation. In the FAQ section of the project there is the question: "What if one of these farms are destroyed?" Their answer put simply: "We will replant them with other new farms." If you would like to gift a donation in for this project

I think I should say, before I start this episode, where I am on the Epstein story. If you forced me to give you my best guess, I think this guy had a lot of powerful friends, and that he was a predator and a pedophile, and those sides of his life were mostly separate.
I don't think there is a list of boldfaced names. The reason I don't think there is a list is that there have been a lot of big law firms hunting for cases here. There is a lot of money to be made in suing anyone connected to Epstein. Very, very powerful firms — to say nothing of media organizations — that are capable of hiring excellent investigators are just not finding much.
